

The Frightened Dragon

Once upon a time, there lived a dragon. The dragon was fierce and scary. The dragon started to get hungry. He flew off to find some food. Suddenly it started to rain and the dragon's wings could not fly any more. Then he landed right in the middle of a castle. A knight spotted the dragon and got his sword out. The knight charged at the dragon but the dragon saw him coming so he opened his mighty jaws and did the loudest roar! The knight kept on running towards the dragon. Just then, the dragon got out his sharp claws and tried to protect himself.

Now the dragon was starting to get a bit frightened so he ran for his life but the knight threw his sword at the dragon's leg. The dragon was too strong for the sword. Then the rain stopped and the dragon was able to fly away, but he started to feel a bit tired so he flew down to the ground to have a sleep. Suddenly the knight found the dragon again. When the dragon woke up, he started to get scared all over again. The dragon ran and ran but the knight was faster. The dragon was so scared, so he ran as fast as lightning and he lost the knight.

The dragon was so happy but just as he was about to fly he saw the knight again. The knight said he was going to get the dragon. They started to fight but the dragon kept on winning. Suddenly the knight started to win. The dragon spread his wings and flew away. The knight was getting tired and he stopped running and fell to the ground. The dragon lost the knight again. The dragon kept on flying just in case the knight came again.

Just then he saw the knight on the floor, so he rushed back to help. The dragon picked him up and took him back to the dragon's house in the mountains. The knight woke up and was terrified when he saw the dragon. He ran out of the cave and out to the cliff's edge. Suddenly, the knight fell off the cliff! The dragon didn't notice until he heard someone crying for help. At first the dragon didn't know who it was, so he flew down to see. He saw the knight on the floor. The dragon picked the knight up and took him back to the cave.

When the knight got up he wasn't scared because the dragon had been kind. Now they were friends. They had a party back at the castle and the dragon was never frightened again.

By Theo A (Year 2)