

Redbourn Infant and Nursery School

26th January 2018

Workshadowing

Thank you to those that attended the Year 1 workshadowing this week. We hope you enjoyed it and got a good insight into what your child's day involves.

Big Garden Bird Watch

The RSPB is running the Big Garden Bird Watch between the 27th - 29th January. The children will be asked to participate for their home learning. Information and packs are available on the RSPB website – www.rspb.org.uk/birdwatch/

Nursery Applications

Nursery applications will open on Monday 5th February and will now come directly to school. You can find all the information on the front page of our website. Application forms will be paper based and will need to be returned to the school office no later than Monday 5th March.

Congestion

Please be respectful towards everybody on the school grounds particularly on the narrow pathways, entrances and gated areas. Thank you

100 Club

Here is a catch up of our recent winners –

Oct 17 – Nawal Benothman Nov 17 – Angela McCarthy
Dec 17 – Wendy Evans Jan 18 – Katherine Males

Congratulations to you all.

Save the Date – Quiz Night

FORIS will be hosting a joint Quiz Night with the junior school on Saturday 3rd March. Signing up forms will be sent out shortly so get those thinking caps on!

NSPCC Number Day

On Friday 2nd February all the children are invited to come to school in non-school uniform and wear a number. We ask for a £1 donation for the NSPCC. Our learning focus for this day will of course be numbers!

Online Safety News

Please read the attached Online Safety News from Herts.

Year 2 Trip

Year 2 had a great trip to Woburn Safari Park yesterday. They came back buzzing with how much they learnt.

Nuts

Please be reminded that we are a nut free school. We cannot allow packed lunches or snacks to contain any nuts. This includes after school on the playground too.

Lost Property

Please name all of your childrens clothes/shoes and in particular sports kit for extra curricular clubs. If you have anything missing check the lost property boxes outside Year 1 and Reception in the first instance. Thank you
